

Welcome to Port Moody

Everything you actually need to know, built with help from the people who actually live here.

PORT MOODY PULSE · THE HEARTBEAT OF PORT MOODY

The Basics

GARBAGE & RECYCLING

Port Moody collects garbage, recycling, and organics on alternating schedules by zone. Check your exact pickup day at portmoody.ca/garbage — put bins out by 7am. Download PoMobile, the city's official waste collection app — get a reminder the night before pickup, including whether it's a glass recycling week. Available on Google Play and the Apple App Store.

WATER RESTRICTIONS

The region runs on a 4-stage water restriction system every summer (May 1–Oct 15). Check portmoody.ca for the current stage before you water anything — rules shift through the season.

GETTING AROUND

Port Moody has two SkyTrain stations (Moody Centre and Inlet Centre) on the Evergreen Line, direct to Vancouver. The West Coast Express also connects Port Moody to Vancouver and other stations along the line. The free Shoreline Shuttle runs on major event days all summer. Lake parking at Buntzen and Sasamat fills fast on summer weekends.

EMERGENCY & HEALTH

- Fire Hall No. 1: 150 Newport Drive.
- Urgent & Primary Care Centre: 3105 Murray Street, open 9am–8pm daily, walk-in. Not for chest pain, head injuries, or broken bones — go to Eagle Ridge Hospital.
- Newport Medical Clinic: walk-ins Mon–Fri 9am–7pm, Sat 9am–2pm.

BEAR COUNTRY

Yes, really. Keep garbage secured, especially in fall. If you see a bear, call the BC Conservation Officer Service at 1-877-952-7277.

Port Moody, By the Numbers

A few facts that surprise even longtime residents.

74,800

Projected population by 2050 — nearly double today's, per the city's own Fire Rescue Master Plan.

1879

The year Port Moody was named the western terminus of the CPR, before the line moved west to Vancouver.

230,000+

Annual visits to the Shoreline Trail — one of the city's most-used recreational spaces.

5 min

Time to walk every brewery on Brewers Row — one of the highest brewery-per-capita concentrations in BC.

Canada's best-selling wine of the 1970s, Baby Duck, was invented here by Hungarian immigrant Andrew Peller.

BAKERIES

- Elmo Baking Co. (Murray Street) — consistently praised for croissants
- Gabi & Jules — one of the higher-reviewed options in the city
- Oh Sweet Day — locally popular for cakes and desserts
- Cascadia Bakehouse — another well-reviewed local option

OTHER STANDOUT SPOTS

- Original's Mexicano — earned Mexico's official Sello M culinary authenticity seal, one of only six restaurants in BC to receive it.
- One Sixty — wine bar and café known for its smash burger and small seasonal menu. Worth noting: reviews on the burger specifically are mixed, not uniformly glowing.
- Blaze Gourmet Burgers — consistently praised for juicy, flavorful burgers; recently moved from a food truck into a proper storefront.
- Sabor A Mexico — family-owned, authentic recipes passed down through generations; genuinely has a vegan chorizo platter, per multiple reviewers.
- Hard Bean Brunch Co. — opened 2022 on Moody Street; also, randomly, once won "Canada's Best Restroom" in a national contest.
- Omega Café — all-day breakfast diner on St Johns Street, especially loved for the Garden Omelette.

Specialty Culinary Spots

For specific dietary needs or cravings — verify current menus directly, since offerings change.

VEGETARIAN & VEGAN-FRIENDLY

— Kokomo (Newport Village) — genuinely vegan-friendly menu, a local favorite

INDIAN CUISINE

— Aroma Indian Restaurant and Lounge — long-established, consistently well-reviewed, dine-in and takeout

A NOTE ON GAPS

We looked specifically for confirmed egg-free bakery options and a dedicated noodle-box takeout spot in Port Moody and couldn't verify either clearly enough to recommend by name — search results kept pulling in nearby Coquitlam and Vancouver businesses instead. If you know of a genuinely local option, tell us at portmoodypulse@gmail.com and we'll add it.

Beauty & Personal Care

NAIL SALONS

- Citrus Nail Lounge (Newport Village)
- Muse + Maven Lash + Beauty Studio
- Inlet Nail Studio

HAIR SALONS

- LUXE Hair Salon — 4.9 stars across 1,400+ reviews
- Zoom Hair Salon — small, female-owned
- Melika Hair Salon — long-standing local favourite

TAILORING

- Local Tailoring — alterations, tends to be busy so plan ahead

Wellness

- Sauna Soumi— private, two-hour Finnish sauna sessions with cold plunge, newly opened this July. Locally owned by two Port Moody residents; the only facility of its kind in the region.

PRACTICAL LOCAL SERVICES

Reliance Automotive: Recommended repeatedly by longtime residents — honest pricing, no upselling.

For notary services and other essentials, the Newport Village and Suter Brook Village commercial areas have several options within walking distance of each other.

Childcare & Daycare

A starting point, not an exhaustive list — always confirm licensing and availability directly with the provider.

LICENSED DAYCARE & CHILDCARE CENTRES

Rather than list specific addresses here — which can go stale as centres open, close, or relocate — the most reliable source is Fraser Health's own public registry of licensed child care facilities, searchable by city.

A few names worth knowing as starting points: BrightPath St Johns Child Care Centre, Kids Academy, Kiddos Clubhouse Daycare, Newport Childcare Center, and the two Kinder Kampus locations. Confirm current availability and licensing directly with each provider or via the Fraser Health registry.

WORTH KNOWING

The province has funded 150 new licensed child care spaces at the former loco school site, backed by $13.9 million from the ChildCareBC New Spaces Fund. BC's fee-reduction program can also lower child care costs by as much as $900 per child per month for eligible families.

Pet Resources

VETERINARY CARE

- Port Moody Animal Hospital (St Johns Street) — locally owned since 1998
- Newport Village Animal Hospital (276 Newport Drive) — extended hours: Mon–Fri 8am–8pm, Sat–Sun 9am–7pm
- Healing Paws Animal Hospital — holistic and integrative veterinary care

Worth knowing directly: no clinic we could confirm in Port Moody itself offers true 24-hour emergency care. Newport Village Animal Hospital's own guidance is to go to a 24-hour regional facility after hours — worth saving that number in advance.

DOG-FRIENDLY TRAILS

Chines Park (Jane Street at Hugh Street); Bert Flinn Park, on the wide gravel trail from Heritage Mountain Boulevard and David Avenue, plus the Morning Off-Leash Mini Loop pilot, 6–10am only; the north end of Westhill Park (203 Westhill Place); the fenced dog run at Rocky Point Park (2900 block Murray Street); and specific areas at BC Hydro's Buntzen Lake Reservoir. Dogs must be leashed everywhere else in the city — non-compliance can result in a ticket (Bylaw No. 3343)

PET SUPPLIES & DELIVERY

We couldn't confirm a specific Port Moody-based pet food or litter delivery service clearly enough to recommend by name. Several national chains and delivery apps do serve the area.

Parks, Trails & Little-Known Spots

ROCKY POINT PARK

The city's waterfront anchor — there's a hidden Morse code message somewhere in the park, and an echoing mandala near the splash park.

SHORELINE TRAIL

A roughly 6km round trip connecting Rocky Point to Old Orchard Park, paved and accessible, with a boardwalk section suitable for strollers.

BERT FLINN PARK

One of the city's larger natural spaces, popular with dog walkers.

SASAMAT, BELCARRA, BUNTZEN, BARNET MARINE

All within a short drive, each with a different character — Sasamat for an easy lake loop, Buntzen for a longer forested hike with a dog beach, Belcarra for tide pools.

LABYRINTH AT NEWPORT VILLAGE

Built by Crossroads Hospice with the City of Port Moody. Just steps away sits Phone of the Wind — an unconnected rotary phone where visitors can 'call' loved ones who've passed. Installed in 2021, it's since been covered by CBC News for how it's helped people process grief.

OLD ORCHARD HALL TO ROCKY POINT

A well-used walking connection between the two — expect company, especially on weekends.

Getting to Know the City

(Murray Street) Steve's grandfather was a CPR train engineer who bought him this building decades ago. One of the last repair shops of its kind.

PORT MOODY RECREATION CENTRE & KYLE CENTRE

PORT MOODY PUBLIC LIBRARY

A genuinely well-used community resource, worth getting a card early.

NOONS CREEK HATCHERY

A small, easy-to-miss educational spot most new residents don't know exists.

PORT MOODY STATION MUSEUM

Located near Rocky Point — a great stop for understanding the city's railway history.

PORT MOODY ARTS CENTRE

Housed in a heritage building moved and saved from demolition by Fred Soofi, who has personally restored six heritage houses across the city. Home to PoMoArts.

HOW THE CITY ACTUALLY WORKS

Port Moody council meets twice a month, generally the 2nd and 4th Tuesday, 7pm at City Hall. Meetings are livestreamed and open to the public — agendas at portmoody.ca.

Creative Spaces & Vendor Markets

SELLING AT THE FARMERS MARKET

Port Moody's Farmers Market is run by the Grow Local Society, established in 2008. The core rule for any vendor: you must “make, bake, grow, forage, or raise” what you sell. Applications are accepted year-round — apply directly at makebakegrow.com/get-involved.

Summer market: Wednesdays 3–7pm, June–October. Winter market: Sundays 10am–2pm, November–April. Both at the Rec Complex parking lot / lobby, 300 Ioco Road.

SELLING OR DISPLAYING LOCAL ART

The Port Moody Arts Centre (PoMoArts) runs a gift shop featuring work from local artists, alongside its gallery space — a genuine starting point if you're looking to consign or display original work. Contact them directly at 604-931-2008 to ask about current opportunities.

Why We Love It Here

Port Moody calls itself the “City of the Arts,” and once you've been here a while, it's hard to argue. It's a place where a boot repair shop can sit two blocks from a 27-storey tower under construction, where a retiree can walk into a writing class and come out a published author, where an Indigenous sound healer performs on a park bench and a stranger walking by stops to listen.

This guide started as a question on Reddit, and most of what's genuinely useful in it came from real Port Moody residents who took the time to answer. That's kind of the whole point of this city.

We're Port Moody Pulse — a free, independent, weekly newsletter covering the stories, people, and decisions that make this city what it is.
